

Mālama Punalu`u 2008
AUGUST 30th and 31st

MAHALO TO OUR SPONSORS:

Healing Our Island Grant

HI COUNTY COUNCILMAN BOB JACOBSON

MAHALO NUI LOA !

It would be impossible to list all of the individuals whose sacrifices of time, effort, talent and energy made the 2nd Annual MALAMA PUNALU`U FESTIVAL a reality. Suffice it to say that the festival would not have been if not for the help of all the sponsors, cultural practitioners, the vendors, the merchants, the entertainers and donors who along with the many volunteers from Ka`u Preservation and the Island as a whole made it happen. Like the many spokes of a wheel people took their place in the process and did what they did best. The end result was a wheel that turned in a worthy fashion for a most worthy cause.

The financial goal of the Malama Punalu`u Festival is simply to pay for the event so that it can remain FREE to all. If you have enjoyed the experience of the festival, please show your appreciation in one of three ways:

1. The donation boxes on the grounds.
2. The silent Auction (Saturday only)
3. The raffle both days.

We are most grateful for your attendance and your support.

We came together to celebrate all that is good about Punalu`u and Ka`u. I believe that all of us who had any role in this production must know that we were blessed, graced and gifted to have been a part of this great event.

So it is that we honored Dennis Pavao's words:

"We stand together to save our sacred lands!"

Me ke aloha pumehana

General Chairperson

from the mountains to the sea...

Punalu‘u has been a living classroom for centuries and if protected, can continue to be an invaluable cultural resource and a “Living Classroom” for students and educators from around the world. With public input and community involvement we can create a positive vision that comes from people of Ka‘u who have protected its resources for nearly two thousand years. We welcome your involvement, ideas and participation to help save this invaluable natural resource before it is too late.

Na Mo‘olelo o Punalu‘u: Stories of Punalu‘u

Prominent scholars believe Punalu‘u Beach to be a possible original landfall of the first Polynesian colonists from the South Seas. For nearly 2,000 years Punalu‘u has provided its inhabitants and visitors with abundant resources, from its fresh water springs and healing medicine ponds to a wealth of fishing grounds and warm black sand beaches. For generations Punalu‘u has served as an oasis in the Great Ka‘u desert, supporting the needs of its inhabitants and legions of Hawaiian warriors during the reigns of Keoua and Kamehameha.

Massive tsunamis in 1868, 1946, 1960 and 1975 made direct hits on Punalu‘u, shaping its history and its geography. The massive 7.2 earthquake and tidal waves of 1975 sent 20 foot waves smashing through the windows of the Sea Mountain Resort at Punalu‘u and portions of the coastline dropped over 10 feet.

The sugar plantations and ill-guided resort developments of the 1900’s devastated what remained of Punalu‘u’s fish ponds, springs and sacred sites. Today, many of the decedents of the Hawaiian fishing families who have lived at Punalu‘u for centuries serve as unofficial stewards of their kula ‘iwi (ancestral place) and are dedicated to the restoration and protection of Punalu‘u. Continuing the legacy of their ancestors – they are the fierce and proud people of Ka‘u.

Aloha!

And welcome to the 2nd Annual Malama Punalu'u Culture and Music Festival.

Ka'u Preservation is proud to present to the Ka'u Community and all residents of the island and the many visitors to our state, 2 days of music, hula and cultural demonstrations that celebrate the rich cultural heritage of Ka'u.

The Ka'u district is the largest in the state and is home to the longest undeveloped coastline in Hawai'i. Through your support we can protect our sacred lands that include special places like Punalu'u Black Sand Beach and Ninole that we rely on to continue our traditional way of life here in Ka'u.

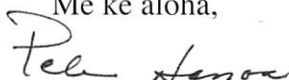

Mahalo to all who have worked so hard to create this wonderful festival. In addition to our regular sponsors we would also like to thank the following for their extensive support:

Queen Lili'uokalani Children's Center, Coke-Cola Bottling of Hilo, Arnott Lodge and Hiking Adventures, Floral Resources of Hilo, Kahuku Ranch Vacation Rentals, Pahala Plantation Cottages, Greenpoint Nurseries, Hana Hou Restaurant, Hawaiian Flowers of South Point and McCall's Flower Farm.

It is time to celebrate the beauty that surrounds each of us today --from Ka'u's mountain forest to the clear waters of the sea.

Let us Malama Punalu'u and all the sacred lands of Hawai'i.

Me ke aloha,

Pele Hanoa
President
Ka'u Preservation

Wahi Pana O Punalu‘u: Sacred Sites of Punalu‘u

There are three pre-contact heiau within the immediate vicinity of Punalu‘u. To the south lies Ka‘ie‘ie. Thought to be a fishing shrine the heiau was built on a prominent bluff overlooking the ocean to the south, what were once the Ninole fishponds to the west and Koloa Bay to the east - home of the legendary na ‘ili‘ili hanau (birthing stones) said to have supernatural ability to propagate.

The heiau complex of Lanipau has not fared as well. Heavily impacted by the construction of the Sea Mountain Resort golf course, it was the largest of the three. Today, what remains of Lanipau is in essence an “island” swallowed up by a sea of putting and driving greens. The heiau complex that sits overlooking the ocean and Punalu‘u Beach is referred to by many names including, Halelau, Kane‘ele‘ele; Mailekini or Punalu‘u Nui. This heiau likely extended to the edge of the cliff at Punalu‘u Bay. Identified as a heiau luakini (human sacrifice temple), a large table-like stone rests outside the southernmost wall and is known locally as Pohaku Mohai (sacrificial stone).

A Sea Turtle Sanctuary

Punalu‘u is home to many endangered and threatened species, including the Hawaiian monk seal, hawk and hoary bat.

The sacred sea turtles who live and nest at Punalu‘u are reptiles whose ancestors evolved on land and returned to the sea to live about 150 million years ago. The threatened Honu (Hawaiian green sea turtle) rely on Punalu‘u as a feeding ground and resting place while the endangered Honu ‘ea (Hawaiian hawksbill sea turtle) rely on Punalu‘u as a nesting site in the summer and fall. In Hawai‘i, many islanders worship sea turtles as family guardians, or ‘aumakua. To these families the turtle is not only a protector but also the embodiment of their ancestors.

Today, sea turtles at Punalu‘u are threatened by increasing coastal development in Ka‘u that causes habitat degradation and increases toxic runoff. They are also impacted by illegal hunting, incidental (or non-deliberate) catch in fishing gear and marine debris that can prove deadly to sea turtles when they entangle the turtles or are mistaken for food and ingested.

Music and Cultural Festival

ENTERTAINMENT

LIVE MUSIC

Amy Hanaiali'i

Amy Hanaiali'i has undoubtedly established herself as Hawai'i's most respected and loved female vocalist, songwriter and performer. She continues to be the top selling female vocalist in Hawai'i and has won the hearts of many with the resurrection of ha'i (falsetto).

Ledward Kaapana

Ledward Kaapana is nearing his 40th year as a professional musician. His mastery of stringed instruments, particularly slack key guitar, and extraordinary baritone and leo ki'eki'e (falsetto) voice have made him a musical legend.

Uncle George Na'ope

"Uncle George" is revered for his knowledge and mastery of traditional hula and chant. Born on O'ahu and raised in Hilo, Na'ope founded the Merrie Monarch Festival in 1962 and is recognized by the Governor and Hawaii State Legislature with the designation "Living Golden Treasure" and was a National Endowment for the Arts Recipient in 2006.

Ka'u

Kau resident and musician Demetrios Oliveira founded this local Ka'u band that has toured the islands and the nation, spreading inspiration and aloha to the world. The band is famous for its songs about the majesty of Ka'u and the beauty of Punalu'u.

Darren Benitez

After a long 10-year break from recording, Darren Benitez has proven the Na Hoku Hano Hano judges right, living up to the promise they saw in those early performances. His latest release, Dear Mama, reflects not only his love for music that he first felt as a child, but also the deepening appreciation that continues to grow within him to this day.

Also performing at the festival will be award winning artists Eddie Kamae, Mike Kaawa, Analu Aina, Sugah Daddy, Manoa DNA, Brudda Smitty, Kekuhi Kanahela, Darlene Ahuna, Kanaka Pila Diana Aki, and the band Punalu'u featuring Peter Anderson, Fish Harris, Bruce David and Koo Koo Sedeno.

THE HAWAIIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Hawaiian Kingdom's national anthem, entitled "Hawai'i Pono'i," was composed by His Majesty King David Kalakaua in 1876 honoring King Kamehameha I, founder of the Hawaiian Kingdom in 1810. The music was arranged by Captain Henry Berger, Bandmaster of the Royal Hawaiian Band, and was based on the Prussian hymn "Heil Dir Im Siegerkranz". The English translation is provided below, but the anthem is always sung in Hawaiian.

Hawai'i Pono'i

*Hawai'i Pono'i
Nana i kou Mo'i
Ka Lani Ali'i
Ke Ali'i*

*Hawai'i's own
Look to your King
The Royal Chief
The Chief*

*Makua Lani e
Kamehameha E
Na kau e pale
Me ke ihe*

*Royal Father
Kamehameha
We shall defend
With spears*

*Hawai'i pono'i
Nana i na Ali'i
Na pua muli kou
Na poki'i*

*Hawai'i's own
Look to your Chiefs
The children after you
The young*

*Hawai'i pono'i
E ka Lahui e
'O kau hana nui
E u'i e*

*Hawai'i's own
O Nation
Your great duty
Strive*

Hawai'i Aloha

*E Hawai'i, e ku'u one hanau e
Ku'u home kulaiwi nei
'Oli no au i na pono lani e
E Hawai'i, aloha e*

*O Hawaii, O sands of my birth
My native home
I rejoice in the blessings of heaven
O Hawaii, aloha*

*Hui:
E hau'oli na `opio o Hawai'i nei
'Oli e! 'Oli e!
Mai na aheahe makani e pa mai nei
Mau ke aloha, no Hawai'i*

*Chorus:
Happy youth of Hawaii
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Gentle breezes blow
Love always for Hawaii*

*E ha'i mai kou mau kini lani e
Kou mau kupa aloha, e Hawai'i
Na mea `olino kamaha`o no luna mai
E Hawai'i, aloha e*

*May your divine throngs speak
Your loving people, O Hawaii
The holy light from above
O Hawaii, aloha*

*Na ke Akua e malama mai ia `oe
Kou mau kualono aloha nei
Kou mau kahawai `olinolino mau
Kou mau mala pua nani e*

*God protects you
Your beloved ridges
Your ever glistening streams
Your beautiful flower gardens*

ALL HAWAII STAND TOGETHER By Dennis Pavao

As I traveled from place to place
Some familiar and some strange
To hear the ancient chantings of our home
As I've listened to the stories
My eyes have seen the glory
So let us raise our voice in song to save our land

Chorus:

All Hawai'i stand together
It is now and forever to raise our voices
And hold your banners high
We shall stand as a nation
Guide the destiny of our generation
To sing and praise, the glory of our land
Within stone walls and cities of refuge,
We learn the sacred ways
Upon Waipio's valley floor
The ancient battles rage
From the barren sloops of Kaho'olawe
And the shores of Kahana Bay
We shall claim our lands from the Barking sands,
To the valleys of Hanalei

Chorus:

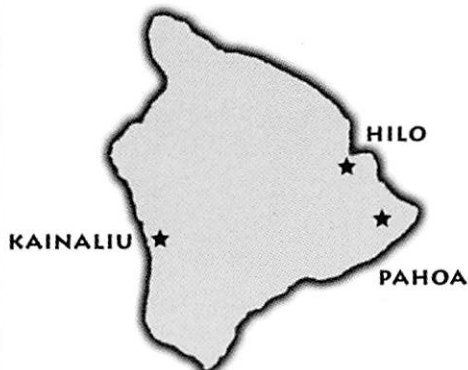

From the fiery pit of Tutu Pele,
I hear my mother's call
Old Tutu Kane and Mauna Kea,
Send their love to all
To stand as one beneath the sun,
Blessings from Haleakala
For our sweet Ka'ala ad Wai'ale'ale
Where the greatest waters fall

Chorus: (in Hawaiian)

Hawai'i Loa, ku like kakou
Ku pa'a me ka lokahi e
Ku kala me, ka wiwo'ole
'Onpa'a kakou, 'onipa'a kakou
A lanakila, na kini e
E ola, e ola, e ola, na kini e
