

2012

Dear friends,

It has been quite sometime since I last seen you George. June of 2011, I close my shop to stay home and care for my beloved fisherman. I finally lost him earlier this year on March 16, 2012 at 88, of cancer in kidney and liver. My shop is still closed until today. Will probably start back next year, Arnold was cremated and was buried at sea in a clam shell as he wished, outside of Punaluu in line with the Hokuoia Chapel on the hill.

It is kinda lonesome living alone at 89 with Artharites and diabetes but I'm hanging in there keeping myself busy. I have our 2 dogs and an old rooster to keep me company and alert. Have you taken any trips this year? In October I did. My daughter from N.C. took me to Wa.D.C. to attend the Hawaiian Civic Club convention. Then stayed with her and the family until the 31st of Oct. and came home. Going to stay home for the holidays. Meanwhile I pray that this will find you and all the family okay and well. Hope to be able to see next year sometime.

Happy Holidays - Love + Aloha,
Jeanette

Sending warm wishes to you and yours
for a Holiday Season overflowing with blessings from above.

Merry Christmas and a blessed happy new year.

"And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS."

- Luke 1:31 (KJV)

Much Aloha,
