Trip Course

Jeongbang Falls > Munseom Island > Beomseom Island > Oedolgae Sea Stack > Twelve Caves of the Hwanguji Coast > Saeseom Island

A new cruise experience! A 70-mi Seogwipo coastline to see!
Simultaneous translation offered in Chinese and English for foreign visitors

A site of many tragedies, the Twelve Caves of the Hwanguji Coast

The 12 caves carved into the Hwanguji Coast are the remnants of Japanese fortifications that housed the manned torpedo ships that were used against the American forces—a painful reminder of Jeju's tragic history.

A sight that can only be seen from the sea, a view of the Seogwipo

Coast
Seogwipo Cruise offers a breathtaking view of the Seogwipo coast, which can only be appreciated from the sea.

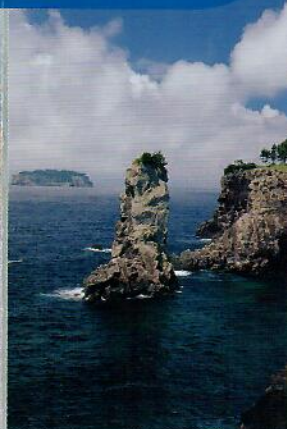

Seogwipo Cruise, the best sea trip in the island!

Munseom Island, an island of mosquitoes and the best spot for scuba diving and fishing

An island just off the coasts of Oedolgae Sea Stack and to the south of Seogwipo's Sammaebong Park, Munseom Island is a delicate island that is just out of reach.

Top-class performance in Seogwipo Cruise, a live performance stage

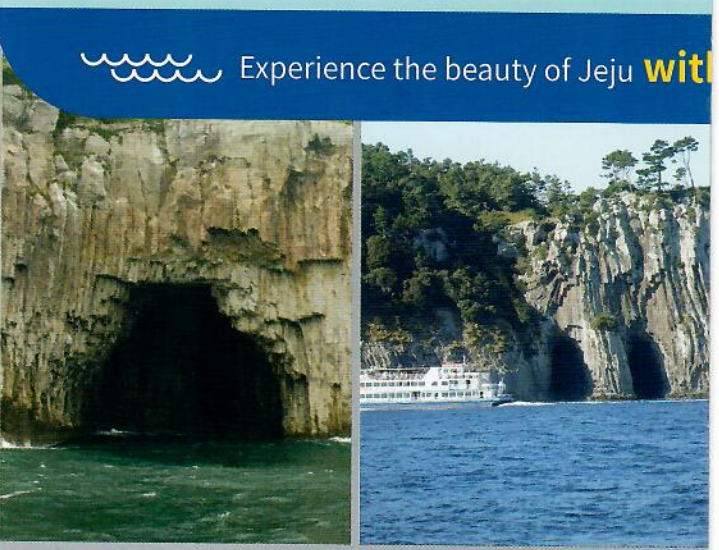

The Seogwipo Cruise stage offers live performances by singers. Visitors can also perform their own songs onstage.

※天气状况允许时可驶入洞窟。

Beomseom Island, a stone island of a thousand faces

Located 5 km to the southwest of Seogwipo Port, Beomseom Island (lit. Tiger Island) is named for its silhouette, which resembles a crouching tiger from afar.
