

MOP Alumni Crowned Miss Hawai'i

The month of June brought smiles and celebrations to MOP, the University of Hawai'i, and Malika Dudley, a UH Mānoa graduate and former MOP student. Dudley was recently crowned Miss Hawai'i. Her win carries her through the ranks as a contestant in the renowned Miss America pageant where she will compete with women from across the US for the coveted title of "Miss America."

Malika is the daughter of UH Hilo Oceanography Professor, Walter Dudley, Ph.D. and UH Hilo French Instructor, Kamila Dudley.

Read more about Malika, her background, and her future as Miss Hawaii at the Hawai'i Tribune-Herald:

www.hawaii.edu/ur/newslinks/tribune/tribune050613.html

From the staff and students of MOP,

Congratulations
Malika!

Updates

UH's Malika Dudley: Miss Hawaii