Parade Hotel breakfast with Simon. Subway to Tien Hau old temple between high rises.
Simon comment - "not good (desirable) to live by temple"
yes TAI (or Lai?) Family owned incense?

Temple for many years. Hanging coils of incense present - not seen in town by me.

To Lunch (Tai) near Causeway Bay
Rode Tram, lots of PAN - High Humidity - mist.
Viewed Floating Boat Temple Tin Hau Magic Turtle seized - years ago (see pictures p.).
Shuttle boat nearby - temple only open 8:30^{AM} - 12:30^{PM}.

Took MTR and then TAXI to Golf Course - Private walk way to the right down to Tin Hau Temple AT Clear Water Bay. No photos allowed.
Building Temple everything looked very new. Money burned. No incense burner only square area w/ ashes outside (rain had soaked it).
Pier near temple.

Took Mini Bus back - it came up the hill
from a quaint looking village - Simon said lots of seafood restaurants.
Then subway. Saw ~~many~~ on bus w/ 2 children loved for MTR back to Hotel.
Dinner Pokka. JAPAN^{SE} food.

Nine-year-old Tse Tung-lam from Precious Blood Primary School performs an extract from The Flower Princess Cantonese opera yesterday. The Institute of Education's three-year Collaborative Project on Teaching Cantonese Opera in Primary and Secondary Schools has been given one of the three musical rights awards by the International Music Council this year. The project is supported by HK$2.66 million from the Quality Education Fund, and is the first partnership between Cantonese opera artists and music teachers in Hong Kong. Photo: Jonathan Wong

Loggerhead heads home

A loggerhead turtle, front, and a green turtle crawl their way back to the seas on a beach in eastern Taiwan, yesterday, as spectators look on. The two protected turtles were temporarily sheltered by the local Marine Biology Research Center after being found with injuries. They were released back into the sea yesterday. It took them more than 30 minutes to cover the 50 meters down the beach.

Chihkan Tower

Chihkan Tower (Former Fort Provintia)

Chihkan Tower is the landmark of Tainan and its most famous historic site. In 1653 the Dutch built "Fort Provintia" in this area, and the Chinese named it "Tower of Savages" or "Tower of Red-haired Barbarians". Chihkan Tower is its official name today. Even though this site has gone through many rulers (Ming, Qing, Japan and KMT), it retains its rich and graceful architectural aspects. Crammed with various kinds of steles, stone horse, stone dumbbells, stone weights, and nine stone tortoises carrying royal stele carved in both Chinese and Manchurian, the courtyard looks like an outdoor museum. Between the Sea God Temple and Wen Chang Pavilion, there is a well; people said that under the well, a tunnel connected with Anping Old Fort. But several years ago, it was excavated and evidenced only a well. The well provided water for the people who lived inside the fort. Chihkan Tower is particularly attractive at night.

赤崁樓(せつかんろう)は台南市で最も有名な古蹟であり、台南市のシンボルでもある。明朝の永曆7年(1653)、オランダ人はここに「普羅民遮城」(プロヴィンシヤ城)を建造した。漢民族に「赤崁樓」もしくは「番仔樓」、「紅毛樓」などの名称で呼ばれている。赤崁樓は明朝末期の鄭氏一族の時期、清朝時代及び日本統治時代の変遷を経て、戦後の現在に至るも一つの風雅優美、層次豊かな建築物である。庭園に佈かれた各種の碑碣(いしづみ)、石馬、石駝、技勇石及び滿洲文字と漢字の二種類文字が刻まれた九基の巨大な鼎屬御碑(ひきぎょひ)等は、戦後、市内の各地点に散らばっていたのを次々とここに移された歴史的价值のある文化財で、あたたかも戶外博物館の観がある。赤崁樓の夜景は觀光客にとって一見に値する風景である。

Tropical storm bears down

Thousands of fishing boats have been called back to port in the south as authorities brace for the arrival of Tropical Storm Nalgae, which has already wreaked havoc in the Philippines. Some parts of the south are still reeling from the damage caused by Tropical Storm Nesat, which killed at least four people, forced the evacuation of hundreds of thousands of residents, triggered floods and toppled houses. Authorities on Hainan Island said yesterday they had ordered more than 27,000 boats back to harbor, Xinhua news agency said. A statement on the provincial government's Web site said Nalgae, which has weakened from a typhoon to a tropical storm, was currently at sea and moving toward the island, packing winds of up to 108kph.
