JEVE SAYS THAT SLP captive hatch w/ coral in a carapace in Reef tank will be released soon.

only one ridley is now remaining alive. Only 4 SLP captives will be sent to the Vancouver Aquarium, not 6. The other 2 will be released.

Released 100 on 7/2 Wednesday night at ~8pm. Channel 2 TV coverage.

* →

need remaining tag numbers of turtles not released:

7/8
TUES.

All frozen turtles (ridleys) picked up at SLP. Saw remaining live ridley in water table - Soft, rotund, jelly-like.

Cut open and preserved in A-2.

No excessive fat noted. Doesn't feel like there are any bones present.

Need to send to NMFS GALVESTON for analysis. Subsequently tel. Mangella; no vet. disease expertise.

Also pickled newly emerged greys which were caught (drowned?) from the captive beach.
