HAWAII ISLAND

Spaceport foes cite pollution, other issues

Opponents of a proposed spaceport on the Big Island attended an open house this week as part of the project's environmental assessment process.

The Hawaii Tribune-Herald reported Friday that some protesters sang songs, played the ukulele and circulated with a microphone seeking to put project representatives on the spot.

Concerns included noise and air pollution, along with safety.

The Alaska Aerospace Corp. project would sit on 12.5 acres and launch small satellites into low orbit. Rockets would be between 40 and 60 feet tall.

The project requires Federal Aviation Administration approval.

The state of Alaska formed the Alaska Aerospace Corp. in 1991 as a public corporation to promote the state's aerospace industry. It operates one launch site on Kodiak Island in Alaska.

Hello Dear XXXX- I'm writing to invite you to be a member of a loose-knit consortium of folks I'm gathering together under the banner of what's called 'Golden Honu Services of Oceania'. No 'Gold' in it for anyone, except in the sense of camaraderie and self-satisfaction helping others that need help in some manner relating to sea turtles. I'm keen to bring people under this umbrella that have different views and expertise on all manner of turtle topics-- from kissing and hugging turtles, to consuming them sustainably. The only necessity is that we all respect one another. And, in doing so, it's my wish that we all genuinely like one another as friends. So yes, to achieve that goal I'm selectively asking people that I like, and that I get along with, and they with me (of course).

The Mission of GHSO is purposely short and broad- as follows"

Golden Honu Services of Oceania: An independent consortium of expert consultants providing advice, information, and assistance without charge on a spectrum of subjects surrounding sea turtles and their conservation.

How will each person's knowledge and experiences be used? I'm not sure. Time will tell as to how this will unfold. For starters I do receive many inquiries asking for advice and information. Likely because I've 'lived a long time' (happily) and my name is out there around the turtle world. I know I'm not always loved, but that's OK too- it's to be expected and I live with it fine. When I answer inquiries I could start adding some of the GHSO Affiliates as cc's to let them also answer as appropriate and, in the process, meet new people.

What would be required of you? Whatever you would like to contribute, when the opportunities arise. Nothing more than that, as a minimum. The only thing I would ask is that each person allow me to simply list their name as a GHSO Affiliate on the new web site recently opened:

www.GeorgeHBalazs.com

No email or other addresses would be included (maybe later if you want, but not now). Note the web site is lightly populated now, but will grow using more photos and publications and videos obtained over the many years.

Best Regards and looking forward to hearing from you, George

吸引民眾沾喜氣

△美國夏威夷來澎的喬治、翰墨先生，感受澎湖虔誠的宗教文化氣息。(莊惠惠攝)

去年鎖港北極殿260兩黃金龜王得主陳大松，今年直接加心願二十兩黃金價100萬元現金歸還。山水上帝廟的360兩金靈龜，由澎湖五星旅行社董事長陳至通乞得，這也是陳至通3度乞得，今年加心願增加為372兩大金龜歸還，增加的12兩以金蛋方式歸還。

昨天的點睛儀式特請到立委楊曜、馬公市長葉竹林、馬公市代表會主席許國政、澎防部指揮官少呂坤修、政戰主任劉上校，副主任蔡上校及廟方及不少遊客也都到場參與。

3 feeding's per day - small floating pellets + lettuce

Birds eat a lot. 1/3? Turtles don't eat all pellets - too small.

Interest and attempts, one mounting sustained no milks.

3/29 visited 230-330pm - no mating
Friday attempts seen. photos of children feeding lettuce; Female P motionless on beach female E floating high staying by ramp.
Two sets of tracks up back to end of beach - sand seems compact. No digging.

4/17 Short visit no nesting or mating.
P swimming fine. See GOTO page 87
