

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

IUCN helped save sea turtle

The Hawaiian green sea turtle's amazing restoration to abundance from near extinction 45 years ago is one of the greatest marine conservation success stories of all time. The International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) played a significant historical role in making this happen.

We send thanks and aloha to IUCN and all its visiting members for a safe and productive World Conservation Congress.

George Balazs and Thierry Work
Co-chairs,
Oceania Region
IUCN/SSC Marine Turtle
Specialist Group