ILE OUEN - NEW CALEDONIA

BY AIR, it is 15 minutes flying with Air Caledonie from Magenta Airport in the heart of Noumea, down the south-western coast of New Caledonia, to the Turtle Club's private landing strip, 50 yds from the resort buildings. En route, travellers have a fabulous aerial view of the legendary Mont d'Or, nickel mines, and coral reefs.

BY SEA, it is a pleasant 2-hour cruise, past the suburban bays of Noumea, down the coast.

Swinging Retreat For Jet-Age Castaways

TURTLE CLUB BEACH

Thousands of turtles which play on the reefs off the island of Ouen, have provided the name for the latest New Caledonia resort hotel and aquatic playground. Modern bungalows, built in cool Melanesian style, nestle among palm trees along a peaceful, sun-drenched bay, 20 miles from the bustle of Noumea.

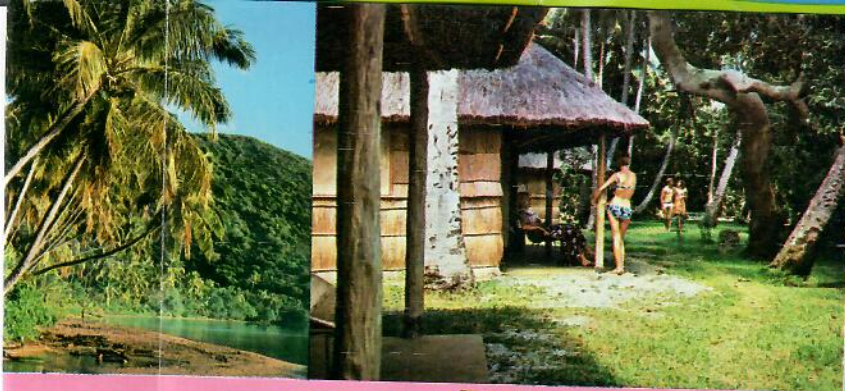

Welcom

This is the crest (left) of the "Cercle Nautique et Aeronautique de l'Île Ouvea", the South Pacific's most exclusive water sports club, which all guests are eligible to join. A nominal subscription covers free use of boats and gear for fishing, water-skiing, snorkelling, pedalcraft, mini-yachts.

Welcome to the TURTLE CLUB

Whatever you seek in the South Seas, awaits you at New Caledonia's latest resort hotel, "Turtle Club" on the lovely island of Ouvea. There's gay companionship in water frolics by day, dancing parties by night. There's total safety for children to roam a vehicle-free island. There's solitude in the hills or lonely palm-fringed bays, or in your own detached bungalow. The determined castaway may play Robinson Crusoe on the mini-paradise of Mato islet out on the reef.
