

Moou, 16 decembre 2004.

This turtle has been found tuesday the 14 of december 2004, in the south pacific, in the north-east coast of New-Caledonia, exactly at the tribe of Moou Ponérihouen.

It was dead, accidentally caughted in a fishing-net near to the beach.

Apparently no disease, no injury; about 0,80 metre of lenth for the "shell".
