灵犬献瑞

2018年是农历戊戌年，即生肖纪年的狗年。《戊戌年》特种邮票由国徽设计者之一，第二、三、四套人民币的主要设计者，著名艺术家、期颐老人周令钊先生设计。周令钊先生还是1982年第一轮生肖狗邮票设计者。邮票延续了第四轮生肖票「合家欢」的设计理念，展示了中华田园犬的形象。第一图的公犬昂首矗立，傲视前方，两耳竖立，后腿有力，好像随时能离地飞奔，抵御外敌、守护家宅。第二图上，棕色母犬深情凝视幼崽，黑色小狗昂头挺立，活泼可爱，母子相依，舐犊情深。两图相连，预示着家的平安和睦与国的兴旺富强。

Smart Dog Brings Good Fortune

The year 2018 marks Wu-Xu Year, or the Year of the Dog, according to Chinese lunar calendar. This set of stamps "Wu-Xu Year" was designed by famous Chinese artist Mr. Zhou Lingzhao, who is almost 100 years old. One of the designers of China's national emblem, he was the chief designer of the second, third and fourth sets of RMB banknotes. The Chinese zodiac stamp for the Ren-Xu Year of the Dog issued in 1982 was also designed by Mr. Zhou. This set of stamps inherits the design theme "Happy Family" of this round of Chinese zodiac stamps and depicts Chinese domestic dogs. The first stamp depicts a male dog that lifts his head up high and looks straight ahead with his bright eyes. His two ears point upwards alertly, and his hind legs thrust against the ground forcefully as if he could rush out anytime to fight intruders and protect the house. The second stamp depicts a brown female dog who amiably gazes at her puppy. The black puppy holds his head high and tries his utmost to stand straightly like a toddler who just learns to walk, and his eyes vividly glisten with childish innocence and timidity. The mother and the puppy stand side by side, demonstrating strong maternal love and symbolizing prosperous family. The two stamps are interconnected, signifying the peaceful, harmonious family and the powerful, prosperous nation.
