.....BLACK DOG ROASTING.....

.....ON AN OPEN FIRE.....

.....Ah yes, that's Bud the Psycho Cat..... singing his favorite Christmas Carol!!

Well, it's been a good year.... No surgeries!! Eddie is in semi-retirement - as you all know, he doesn't know how to REALLY retire! But at least he's not pushing himself so hard now, and saves himself for projects he really likes doing.... most of them having something to do with a boat.....

As you can see from the picture above, Bud - like his Papa - is also in semi-retirement - defending only his ab-lounger now and not the whole yard! --- only occasionally bopping one of the smaller kitties on the head when they get too close..... REEEELLLLYY BUD??? And Sweetie is still the nicest doggy ever - and still shares her dinner with..... let's see, about NINE kitties now! But don't worry, if there's something reeeelllly good in her dish - like people food- she grabs the dish in her teeth & drags it off to eat by herself! Oink!

We get to spend Christmas with Joey's family again - Yay!!! They are so fun, and FUNNY! 2 out of 3 grandkids are now way taller than me & Tiana will be catching up soon. They are 15, 12 & 9 now - I'm trying not to blink or they'll be graduating college already! Such smart, NICE kids! We are so proud of them & of Joey & Renee for raising them so well!! Koa & Kai continue to win medals for paddling (you should see the collection of gold & silver Koa has!) and Kai's 12 year old crew took State Champs this year! Tiana joined the Medeiros Drag Racing Team this year, so all 3 are tearing up the drag strip - and sometimes Dad too, when he gets a chance! (see photo)

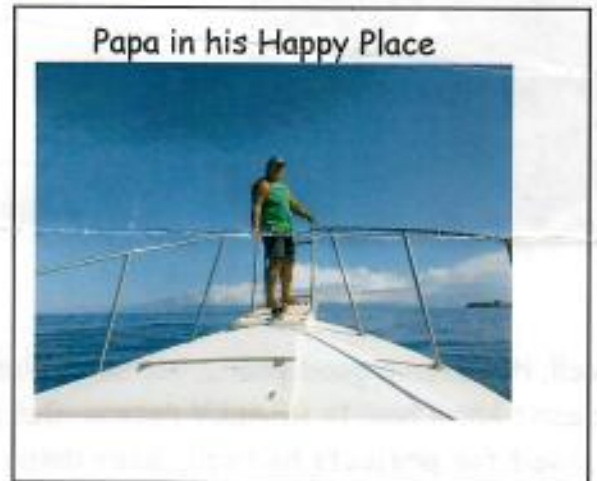

As for me --- retirement?? What's that??? No plans to do that any time soon, those pesky ducks keep waddling out of the row they're supposed to be in!!! But that's ok, I like my job at the Credit Union & I work with terrific people who also enjoy serving the community & helping people, so it's still a win/win situation, Thank You Lord!!

So that's about it for this year.....but here's a great thought:

Sometimes we overlook the meaning of the words of some of the Christmas Carols because we've heard them all our lives. But here's a blessing I love - don't sing it, just read it like a message - "God rest, Ye merry gentlemen, Let nothing you dismay, Remember Christ our Savior was born on Christmas Day to save us all from Satan's power when we were gone astray! O Tidings of comfort and joy! Comfort and joy! O Tidings of COMFORT and JOY!!!" AMEN!!
GOD BLESS YOU ALL & MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!
