Perfect love
all human thought transcending Lowly, we kneel
in prayer before thy throne, That theirs may be the love that knows no ending, Whom thou forevermore dost join in one.

There is the truth in a little creed,
Enough for all the roads we go;
In love is all the law we need,
In Christ is all the God we know.

Edwin Markham

*Years are coming, years are going,
all things change
and pass away.
But the light of love is growing stronger, surer,
day by day.*

*Be ye as the light of morning
like the beautiful
dawn unfold,
With your radiant lives
adorning all the world in hues
of gold.*

What therefore God
hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
Matt. 19:6

Wives, be in subjection
unto your own husbands,
as unto the Lord.
Eph. 5:22

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ
also loved the church,
who gave himself for it.
Eph. 5:25

Bride Wed in Home Ritual

Standing before the windows of her parents' home, which were flanked with baskets of flowers, Emily Bauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bauser, of 1653 Liberty avenue, Lincoln Park, became the bride of George Balazs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Balazs, of Annabelle avenue, southwest Detroit.

The Rev. H. Brauer, of Detroit, officiated, and Alex Brooks and Eldred Masuch, both of Detroit, served as the attendants.

For her marriage, Miss Bauser had chosen a floor-length gown of white chiffon ornamented with quilting at the neckline and waist. Fastened to a band of seed pearls on her head she wore a short tulle veil with a section falling over the face. She carried gardenias and lilies of the valley. Miss Masuch was in light blue chiffon and carried red roses.

After the ceremony, a reception for 190 guests was held at the Lincoln Park Exchange club bungalow. The couple then left for a wedding trip and will be at home on their return in Detroit.

The Lord
bless thee,
and keep thee:

The Lord
make His face
shine upon thee
and be gracious
unto thee,

The Lord
lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee
peace.
