Faa'a, almost retired... but still celebrating!

Faa'a celebrates its 60th anniversary with the first edition of Fareireira'a i Faa'a.

Faa'a, July 28, 2025 - For its 60th anniversary, Faa'a proves that it still has all its vitality. The town celebrates its anniversary in style with Fareireira'a i Faa'a, a major cultural event taking place from July 27 to August 2 on Motu Ovini. A true journey through the five archipelagos of French Polynesia, to the heart of traditions, know-how, and cultural pride.

On Motu Ovini, until August 2, each day is dedicated to a group of islands—Tuamotus, Marquesas, Austral Islands, Leeward Islands, and Windward Islands—for Fareireira'a i Faa'a. An event allowing the public to discover a wealth of dances, songs, crafts, gastronomy, storytelling, and even tattoos. The cultural village, open to all, is enlivened by workshops, sports demonstrations, and shows every evening. An event that aims to be as festive as it is educational.

Emblematic figures such as Antoine Arakino, Ginette Hutia, and Heimata Barsinas are present to fly the flag for Polynesian culture. The goal is clear: to transmit, promote, and celebrate a shared identity.

Fare Ora for rā'au Tahiti

And since birthdays never come alone, the town has inaugurated the Fare Ora of Faa'a, a new center dedicated to traditional Tahitian medicine—rā'au Tahiti. Located in the town hall's craft
