Dearest friend, George. Balazs;

First of all, let's give thanks to our heavenly father for what he has done for us everyday of our lives. But this time lets have a conversation about whats going on and whats happening down here at our beautiful village. Hi George, how are you? How's your love life? And how's everything over there? I hope you are doing fine and have a good life over there. Ha! ha! Hey George, I was very happy when I received your letter. I was waiting for a letter from you. When I opened the letter, I was so surprise when I saw our picture insde the letter. George where are all the pictures, I like to see, please. George can you mail me some more pictures? Hey George, you know something me and my sister Flora were so happy when we saw our photo. We were ~~talkin~~ talking about you. We miss you very much. I was thinking about you. I hope to see you someday. George, I like you to mail me some ~~photo~~ ~~some~~ of your pictures to put in my album. Hey George, please mail me some of our pictures that were taken on November 8th, o.k. But if you want to keep some of our pictures for you, o.k. but send us some more, please we want to see.

George write back quickly, and tell me some more about you and your family. George, would you do me a favor? Dont get mad, please. George I want you to send me a Christmas gift, because I had no Chrismas gift, cause my parents are gone to Western Samoa. George if you can't send me some money to by me a Christmas gift. O.K. Please don't get angry, because I had no parents they are gone to Western Samoa. George we miss you very ~~much~~ much. My Mom looked at our picture, she said, its very nice. You know something George, I told my Mom about you, and the day we met you down here at our village. She was very happy. She told me to write back to you. My Mom said Hi, to you George. Okay, George I think I'm going to close the letter, cause I have a lot of homeworks to do. OH! I'm in the 12th grade, and my sister Flora is in the 11th grade. George I will never forget you. My sister said Hi, to you. May God bless you and guide you where ever you go. May His blessing be upon ~~a~~ you and your family. Hope to see you someday soon. We miss you very much. George write back quickly, but don't forget to mail me some more pictures. Hope to hear from you soon. I love you George.
